

Annual C&RD Public Review

The 30-day comment period for the annual C&RD Public Review officially started on May 12, 2004. BPA will accept comments on the proposed changes described through June 12, 2004. The "Proposed Changes" document and supporting documents are available below. Customers and interested parties can submit comments using the link provided or can e-mail comments directly to Mark Johnson, C&RD Program Manager, at <mailto:mejohanson@bpa.gov>. After reviewing and evaluating the comments received, BPA will announce the approved changes to the C&RD Program in July 2004.

Document 4: This document is a new basic protocol for energy conservation measures with less than 100,000 kWh annual energy savings. This basic protocol would be used by customers to monitor and verify the energy saving from small energy conservation projects that do not need BPA approval prior to starting the conservation project or program. This document is embedded in the “Proposed Changes for FY2005” document.
